LONDON:

Introduction.

IN the first place I must refer to some necessary corrections to the first Volume :—

Pages 5 and 22, add a ? to the words “alias Lyons,” under the Arms of Chocke. I think the writer of the addition on page 22, from the Caius Coll. MS., “Witheridge alias Lyons.” refers more to the Arms than to the name of the family. In the grant of a Crest (page 166) the Arms are simply attributed to Witherige by Robert Cooke, and Lyons is not mentioned. Perhaps until some other evidence is produced we may conclude that, as the Arms of Witherige were according to the Patent “Argent, a Chevron sables betweene thre Lyons cowshant gules,” the Arms of Lyons may have been “Argent, a chevron between three lions couchant Gules.” There is nothing “coward” about the lions; and the piece of glass illustrated by Mr. Paul* must, one would think from the colours, have referred to the family of Lyons, and not to that of Chocke.

Page 11, the charges in the Arms of Fraye are, as is usual, tricked as “bee-hives;” they should be “fig frays.”

General

Introduction

The purpose of this document is to provide a comprehensive overview of the project's objectives, scope, and the methodology used to achieve the results presented in the following sections.

The project was initiated in response to the need for a more efficient and accurate method of data analysis. The primary goal was to develop a system that could process large volumes of data in a timely and cost-effective manner.

The methodology employed in this project is based on a combination of statistical analysis and machine learning techniques. This approach allows for the identification of patterns and trends in the data that would not be apparent through traditional statistical methods.

The results of the project demonstrate that the proposed methodology is indeed more effective than traditional methods. The system is able to process data much faster and with greater accuracy, leading to more reliable and actionable insights.

The project has several strengths, including its ability to handle large datasets and its use of advanced machine learning algorithms. However, there are also some limitations, such as the need for a significant amount of training data and the potential for overfitting.

Future work should focus on improving the system's performance and reducing its reliance on training data. This could be achieved through the development of more sophisticated machine learning models and the use of synthetic data for training.

The project has been a success, and the results have been widely praised. The system is now being used in a variety of applications, and its performance continues to improve as more data is processed.

The project has also led to the development of a new methodology for data analysis, which is being shared with the research community. This will help to advance the field of data science and make it more accessible to a wider range of researchers.

The project was supported by the following organizations and individuals: [List of names and organizations]. We would like to express our sincere gratitude to them for their generous support and for making this project possible.

Page 273, in the pedigree of Rich of Sonning the italics in brackets, "Sir, K^t Alderman," should be struck out. They were added, as the Townsend MS. included these words in the running text. Reference may be made to "Some account of the Lord Mayors and Sheriffs of the City of London, 1601 to 1625," compiled by G. E. Cokayne, London, 1897, p. 83 n., where the confusion so often found between the two men named William Cokayne is fully cleared up. I am indebted to the writer of this book for the correction.

The present Volume contains nearly all the flotsam and jetsam gathered during the time the four Visitations of Berkshire were under consideration.

With the exception of the List of those summoned to attend Ashmole and deliver their Arms and Pedigrees, I have again arranged the various Pedigrees and Notes in alphabetical order for convenience of reference. The Table of Contents shews at once the description of the different items.

The copies of the Grants of Arms preserved in MS. Ashmole 858, fol. 189, etc., being those exhibited to him at the Visitation made in 1665-6, have been supplemented from MSS. in the College of Arms, and other MS. Books of Grants in private collections.

In the Introduction to Vol. I. there were printed some letters referring to the obstructions put in Ashmole's way in following the usual custom, that a Herald going on Visitation could obtain copies of the earlier Visitations of the county he was about to visit. It is certain that he obtained a copy of that made in 1623, which he himself transcribed, the signatures to the Pedigrees being imitated. This is preserved in MS. Ashmole 852, pp. 235 to 385, and was the text used for the copy printed in Vol. I.

In the same Volume (MS. Ashmole 852) is another set of Pedigrees, some of which will be found printed in the present Volume. Mr. W. H. Black, in his catalogue of the Ashmole MSS., describes Part I. of MS. Ashmole 852 as "Pedigrees taken at sundry Visitations of Berkshire reduced into one Alphabetical Series by Elias Ashmole, Windsor Herald."

They occupy pages 1 to 202, and of this portion of the Volume Mr. Black remarks that they "seem to have been written later than the following MS. [i.e., the copy of the Visitation of 1623], which is bound up with it."

The Pedigrees are, many of them, taken from the Visitation of 1566, but there are some additional ones, and these I have printed in the present volume. Unfortunately their origin is not even suggested.

Without having had any opportunity of comparing them, I think that the first part of MS. Ashmole 852 is a copy of either Vincent's or Philippott's Berkshire collections, probably the latter, and that Ashmole, finding the official copy of the 1566 Visitation was not sufficiently complete, chose the MS. of one, or it may be of both, or made a combination of or selection from the works of the other two Heralds.

Some, at least, of these additional Pedigrees appear to have been copied from the original papers, thrown out for one reason or another, at the time the office copy was made; others seem to have been compiled in order to fill the blanks between the Pedigrees entered at different Visitations, and thus shew the continuous existence of the family.

In the present Volume will be found transcripts of the original copies, signed by the head of each family, of at least eighteen Pedigrees, prepared for the Visitation made in 1665-6, and thrown out by Ashmole, principally because certain fees of entry could not be obtained. The reason is stated in many instances on the Pedigrees themselves, "fee unpaid," etc., having been added.

It is thus clear that a Visitation was not an official record of the Gentry of a County, but comprised only the Pedigrees of those who were prepared to pay the Fees of Entry.

Of course it is impossible to say that these thrown-out Pedigrees, now found in MS. Rawlinson, D. 865, are all that were so treated, and indeed if the list of those summoned to appear at the Visitation is studied it will be found that in a number of cases there is no explanation given why the Pedigrees were not recorded.

It is almost needless to point out that these eighteen Pedigrees, having been received and written out by the Herald, and signed by the head of each family,* are of equal value with those entered in the Visitation Book of 1665-6, as the mere fact of the non-payment of the fees cannot, of course, in any way depreciate the quality of the information they contain.

* They were "entered" in the first instance; see the letters, pp. 91 and 178.

A somewhat similar instance is referred to by the late Dr. Jackson Howard in his edition of the Visitation of London made in 1568 (p. 13). "The Pedigree of White, prepared in 1568, but not entered in the vellum Visitation-book, G. 10. at the College of Arms, appears in F. 1" [the original papers from which it was compiled] "at fol. 318."

Some few Pedigrees have also been added from the Harleian MSS., the number being given in every instance.

The text I have called the Smith MS. is a copy made, I believe, by Samuel Stebbing, Somerset Herald, about the year 1708. The full title of the book is, "The Visitation of Berkshire made in Anno 1566 By William Harvey al's Clarenceux King of Armes, Transcripta et Augmentata p' Will^m Smith al's Rougedragon Anno 1600."

The Tricks of Arms are in every case copies of the original drawings, and every addition made by myself is in italics, within square brackets.

When the volumes containing copies of all the inscriptions in the Churches of Berkshire, visited by Ashmole, are issued, it will be possible to increase the Armorial of the County, and to add some dates and other information to the fleshless skeletons of the Visitations.

In some instances the series of interesting letters received by Ashmole during the time of his Visitation, as also some Arms and Pedigrees, seemed to require a little addition, and if it be considered that I have now and then gone beyond my tether I would plead the words of so great an authority as Sir William Dugdale: "I am as willing to confine my selfe to y^e circuite of this Shire as he or any man can be to desire it: but they y^e understand what belongs to these things cannot but know that now and then a little light at a remote distance will helpe much."

My thanks are due to my friend Everard Green, Esq., F.S.A., Rouge Dragon, for his kindly interest in my efforts to gather in the flotsam and jetsam of Berkshire contained in the present Volume.

LIST OF BERKSHIRE HOUSEHOLDERS AS ARRANGED FOR THE VISITATION OF 1665—1666.

The following list I have compiled from :—

1. MS. Rawlinson D. 865, folios 8—29^b, called in the catalogue a list of all the persons summoned to appear at the visitation in the years 1665—1666. This forms the basis of the following list.
2. Folios 38—42 of the same MS., headed, Non-appearances vpon the first Summons; these names are marked in the following list, "No App."
3. Folios 44—46. Adionrment for entry till Easter Terme 1665.
4. Folios 47—48^b, headed, Gent. summoned to Reding Assises 1665.
5. MS. Rawlinson D. 1480, folios 19 to 33^b. Another list, in Ashmole's handwriting. It is a list compiled from the others, after weeding out all those (?) who did not come within the scope of the Visitation.

Each list has a number of notes and corrections written by Ashmole, as well as the names of persons added by him from time to time. All these additions are here printed in italics.

List No. 1 is printed in ordinary type. It is no doubt the list furnished to Ashmole at the commencement of the Visitation, and from a note by him, after Bradfield, "247 Harthes," it may be assumed that it contains a fairly accurate list of the principal hearths in Berkshire in the year 1665, more or less completed by Ashmole's additions.

A number of the names are marked with lines and crosses, +, ×; these I have left out, as they seem to follow no exact rule.

No reliance whatever can be placed on the title Gent., so often occurring in MS. No. 1. Many of the names so distinguished drop out before the compilation of the final list No. 5, without having any information attached to them, as mort. gone away, disclaimed, and the like. They are here marked "Not in Rawl. D. 1480."

Any notes not in the main text are printed in square brackets.

See a very full and complete pedigree of Castillion, by G. E. Cokayne, Esq., F.S.A., Churenoux, printed in the "Genealogist," New Series, vol. xvii., pp. 73, 199, 225; also an account of Spenn Church by Walter Money, Esq., F.S.A., in which the monuments are described. The Arms of Castillion are of considerable interest. The original Arms are given at the foot of the Funeral Certificate of John Baptist Castillion who died on the 12th of February 1597-8, and was buried at Spenn, near Newbury, on the 17th of March following (see the fursimile, "Genealogist," vol. xvii.). It is marked, "This is the true Coate of John Baptist Castillion as it was sent from Piemont." Gules, a lion rampant Argent, in the dexter chief point a tower Or. No Crest is given.

There are two Castillion tombs at Spenn, the older one to the memory of John Baptist Castillion. This fine tomb has not been improved by being removed to a corner, and then overshadowed by a painted window in the worst possible taste. It originally shewed the "true coate" as above, with the difference that it is a castle with three towers in the corner of the shield, and not a single tower. The other tomb is that of Elizabeth the first wife of Sir Francis Castillion; it was erected according to the inscription it bears in the year 1604. This tomb also originally had the "true coate."

In all the Castillion Arms on the two tombs the lion rampant is curved in relief, and in some of the shields the castle in the corner is slightly raised. At some period the Arms have been altered in every shield, by fashioning over the lower half of the lion a tower, gilding the upper half of the lion, and painting a small ermine canton over the castle in the corner. The tower has now fallen away, and the mark of it still remains; the gold castle lined out with black originally in the corner can also easily be traced.

The printed impalements recording the various marriages, reaching to 1607, may have been added at any time.

There print three drafts of patents from MSS. in the College of Arms, the "Latin" following the originals. The first is taken from the "Genealogist" by the kind permission of Mr. Cokayne. In my opinion the first two of these were never executed; they are both by Sir Gilbert Dethick, who is said in the third draft to have issued the real patent, which agrees with neither. They were, I think, simply efforts towards granting the proposed augmentation.

The third draft is by Sir William Dethick, and appears to be an exemplification of the Arms and Crest as given in Sir Gilbert Dethick's patent.

About the year 1563, judging from the date of the two earliest drafts, it was intended to grant the augmentation. This I conclude also from the large introduction of ermine into the Arms tricked on both of Sir Gilbert Dethick's drafts.

In 1565 the manor of Brnham Valance was given to John Baptist Castillion, so perhaps it might be concluded that the patent of Arms, not now extant, was granted some time between or about the years 1563 and 1565. Sir Gilbert Dethick died in October 1584.

The last of the three drafts, by William Dethick and William Cunden, is dated the 13th of December 1597. Notwithstanding the "exogilarimus et assignavimus" of the "Latin" text, with regard to the Crest, it will be safer to rely on the English draft, that they "ratified & confirmed this Crest or Cognizance of the Salamanders head coupee proper (?) wth an Emprise or word of delight approprial to the same, wth helmet and mantle."

A decket of this patent seems to be preserved in Stowe MS. 676, fol. 140, as follows: "In Campo Rosso supra el Castillo d'argente uny medio de Leone rampant d'oro: for the Crest a Salamanders head Coupee with an impress or word appropriate to the same, with the helmet and mantells, granted by Will: Dethick Garter to J^{no} Baptista Castillion from Piedmont in Italy."

It will be noticed that in the two drafts by Sir Gilbert Dethick, dated the 1st of May and the 20th of August 1563, the salamander's head is given as the Crest. It now appears only once on the monuments, at the feet of the figure of J. B. Castillion, where it is represented in a different form from that usually found in the tricks. It has a kind of upper beak and a beard; the ears, as well as plaited lines of a mane, are of gold. As in the drafts of Sir Gilbert Dethick it is placed in a crown of gold.

In the draft of William Dethick, now dated 1597, it is stated that the Arms the renowned and ancient family of Castillion bore was, on a field gules a demi lion gold, rising out of a silver castle, as confirmed by Sir Gilbert Dethick. These were probably the Arms confirmed, but they were not the ancient Arms of the family. It is, however, clear, from the drafts of patents dated 1563, that Sir Gilbert Dethick had already started the idea of placing the demi lion in the tower. This change in the position of the charges may have resulted from the augmentation of the ermine canton.

In the draft by William Dethick the Crest is simply described as a salamander's head proper, couped on a wreath of his colours; the crown is not mentioned. It is, however, quite clear that this draft of 1597 ratified and confirmed the Arms and Crest, as they had been before ratified and confirmed by Sir Gilbert Dethick.

Ashmole refers in the annexed pedigree to the ermine canton given by Queen Elizabeth to Castillion as well as to the rose added to the Arms of Compaigne by Henry the VIIIth.

The Arms of Castillion and Compaigne impaled are represented in the facsimile of the Funeral Certificate given with Mr. Cokayne's article in the "Genealogist," as also the Salamander's head Crest in a crown. The trick at the head of Ashmole's pedigree gives the same Arms quartered and the same Crest.

J. B. Castillion died on the 12th of February 1597-8 and was buried on the 17th of March following. This exemplification by William Dethick seems to be dated the 13th of December 1597. It is difficult to see the purpose of it, a little more than two months before Castillion died, unless the previous patent of Sir Gilbert Dethick could not be found.

The idea of course at once occurs, considering the narrowness of the dates, that it was made because it would be required for the proper marshalling of the funeral.

It is puzzling to know at what time the alterations were made in the Arms; it may have been done by J. B. Castillion on his receiving the augmentation, if some portions of the tombs at Speen were prepared before his death in 1598. The later tomb is unfortunately like the older one, neither in its original position nor condition, but the Arms upon it are those of Sir Francis Castillion and Dorothy (St. John) his wife impaled. If their marriage took place, as stated, in the year 1597, the impaled Arms must have been placed on the base in or after that year, and possibly the figure and inscription were not added until 1604. Or it may be suggested that after the funeral of J. B. Castillion, Camden and Thompson, the Heralds, ordered the alteration mentioned above, and made the Arms on both the tombs agree with those exemplified by William Dethick, and with those given on the funeral certificate.

Benham Valance was sold in or after 1630, and notwithstanding the patent of Sir Gilbert Dethick, confirmed in the exemplification of the Arms and Crest by his son Sir William Dethick, Francis Castillion, as pointed out by Mr. Cokayne, was able to prove to the satisfaction of Chitting and Philipott, who acted for Camden at the Visitation of 1623, that the Arms he was entitled to bear were the true Arms as received from Piedmont, quartering Compaigne with the rose granted by Henry the VIIIth (see Vol. I., p. 79).

The same Arms with a different Crest are found on the tomb of the Rev. John Castillion, D.D., Dean of Rochester, buried 1688 ("Genealogist," xvii., p. 204).

Champion, of Reading.

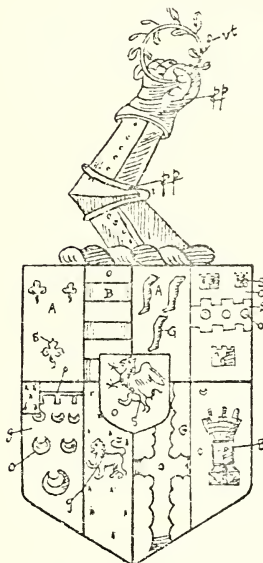

[MS. Ashmole 852, p. 31.]

Townsend's MS. says, "A Ped^{ee} 11 gen[eration]^s higher in C. 2, 267," but does not give them. The following pedigree contains eleven generations higher than Townsend's first entry.

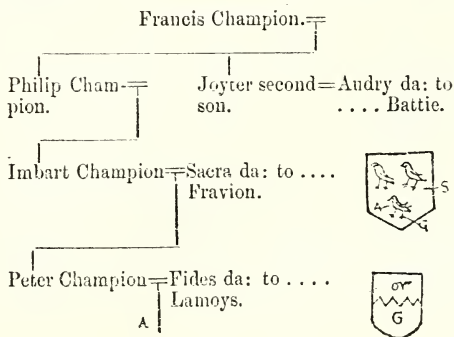

The pedigree so far as John Champion who married Isabell Sanchet appears to be taken from (C. 2, College of Arms) Visitation of Surrey, 1623.

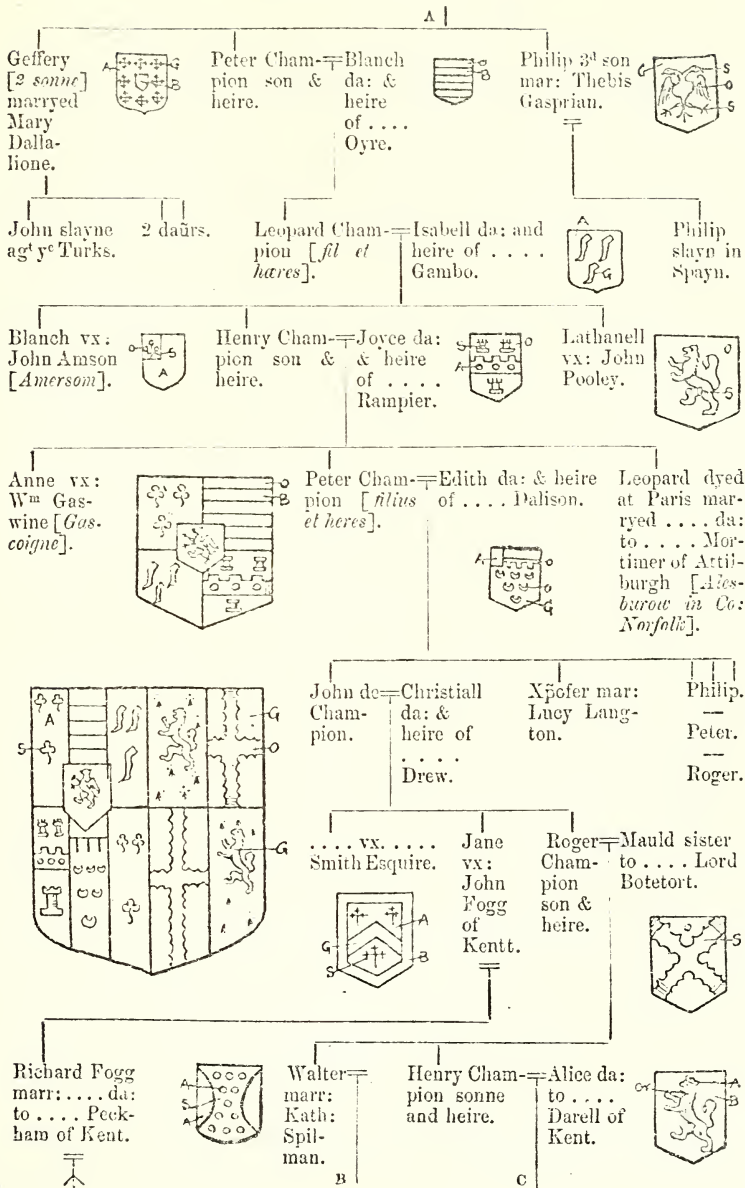

The children of John, the second son of Arnold Champion, are omitted by Ashmole, as well as the descent from Thomas Champion of Horsham, second son of John by his wife Isabell Sanchett. These I have added to Ashmole's pedigree from a MS. copy of the Visitation of Surrey, 1623.

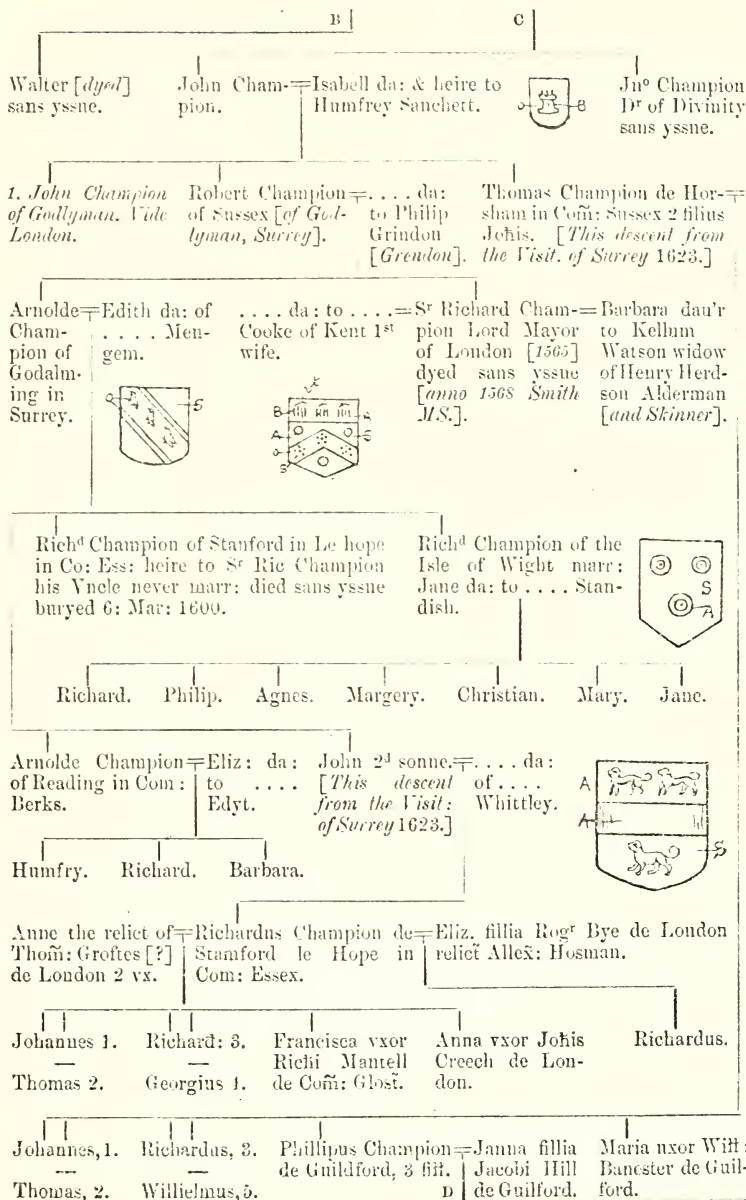

Peter Le Neve, who formerly owned this copy, perhaps justly expresses the opinion that it "was transcribed by a very ignorant fellow who ever he was."

3. WITHERIGE.

To all and singuler as well Nobles and Gentills as others to whome these p'sents shall come, Robert Cooke Esquire alias Clarenceux Princi'pal Herehault and Kinge of Armes of the Sowth, East, and West partes of this Realme of England from the Ryver of Trent southwardes sendith greeting in our Lord God Everlasting. Whereas aunciently from the beginning the valiant and vertuous Actes of worthy p'sons have bin commended to the Worlde in all ages with sondry Monumts and Remembraunces of their good deserte Emongst the which the chiefest and most vsuall hath ben the bearing of signes and tokens in Shildes called Armes which are evident demonstracons of Prowes and valour diversly distributed according to the Qualities and deserts of the p'sons, w^{ch} Order as it was most prudently devised in the beginning to stirre and kindle the hearts of men to the Imitacon of Vertue and noblenes even so hath the same ben and yet is continually observed to th'ende that such as have don commendable service to their prince or Country either in Warre or peace may both receive due honor in their Lyves, and also derive the same successively to their Posterity for ever And being required of Richard Choke of Avington in the County of Berks Esquire, second sonne to Alexander Choke, and brother and heire to S^r John Choke Kn^t son and heire to John Choke, son and heire to S^r Richard Choke of Long Asheton in the County of Somerset Kn^t, one of the Justices of the Common Pleas at Westm[^e]ster to make sarche in the Registers and Records of my Office for the auncient Armes belonging to that name and flamily wherof he is descended, I have at his request made search accordingly,

And finding the same in the Records of myne Office, I coulde not without his great Prejudice assigne vnto him any other Armes then those which are lawfully to him descended from his Ancestors, And in Consideracion therof I have confirmed assigned and granted vnto and for the sayd Rich: Choke Esquire the oulde ancient Armes of his Ancestors as followeth That is to saye he beareth quarterly in the firste for Choke Gules three barres wavye argent, in the second for Witherige Argent a Cheveron sables betweene thre Lyons cowshant gules, in the third for Geton argent three flower de Lucis semy Crosse Croselets azure, the last as the first. And for as much as I finde no Crest vnto the same as commonly to all ancient Armes there belongeth none, I have given vnto him by Way of Encrease for his Crest & Cognizance on a Wreath argent and gules a Cranes head between two Winges Argent in a Crowne Golde, manteled gules dobled argent as more plainly apperith depicted in this Margent, which Armes and Crest I the sayd Clarenceux Kinge of Armes, by the power and auctoritie to myne Office annexed and granted by Letters Patentes vnder the great Seale of Englad have ratified, confirmed assigned and granted vnto and for the sayd Rich: Choke Esquire and to his posterity with their due differences the same to vse beare and shewe for evermore in Shilde Cote Armour or otherwise, and therein to be revested at his and their Liberty and pleasure without Impedim^t Lett or Interrupcion of any pson or persons. In witness wherof I have sett herevnto my hande and Seale of Office the fourth day of July in An^o Dñi 1576: and in the Eighteenth Yeare of the Raigne of our Sovereigne Lady Quene Elizabeth &c:

Mr Champion informs me y^t you expect to hear from me, and had e're this time, had I not lately purchased land, which renders me uncapable at present for another purchase, soe y^t I fear together with the misfortunes of the times y^t I shall not be able to defray easily soe great fees till another year, Besides S^r I am in hope to clear a title to y^t coat by the name of Collins Vert a Gryphon segreant Or, And the reason besides the carelessness of mens keeping of antient writings may be this, why we are ignorant of our descent y^t since the first of Henry the Seventh there have been seven lineal descents all of one name which I can manifest soe y^t the son was never old enough to receiv anything by tradition of the father, whereby alsoe we have been counsell of our Estate there being severall familys Extant at this day raised out of it. But S^r you were pleased to say y^t you would confirme the same coate to me only with some addition, now if the addition of a Crest be a sufficient distinction I would indeavour to pay the fees by the next returne. To all and singular as well nobles & gentlemen & others to whom these presents shall come . . . I William Camden Clarenceux King of Arms . . . sendeth greeting in our Lord God Everlasting . . . Whereas Thomas Draper of Stroud Green in the County of Middlesex sonne of John Draper descended of a family which hath anciently borne armes has desired me to exemplefy and emblazon the arms of the said family in such manner as he may not prejudice any other of that family . . . I thought it reasonable to complie to his request herein considering his wise desire good parts and that Godshelp enabled him to mayntayne the reputation of Armes and do find that he may beare in a field or four bends gules, a chief ermine, with three fleurs-de-lis sable in a surchief argent, and for his crest upon a helme & wreath of his colours a stags head couped gules attired or with three fleurs-de-lis sable in a collar argent, mantled gules doubled silver as more playnly appearith, which I William Camden Clarenceux King of Arms by virtue & authoretic annexed to my office under the great seale of England do ratify allow & confirm to the said Thomas Draper and his posterity to use bear & shew forth with the due differences according to the law of Armes & the lawdable enstome of England & I have hereunto set my hand & seal of office this second day of August 1612, 20 James.

This Patent was not passed at the time but was granted in Feb. 1613-14 to his son Thomas Draper (see Camden's Grants, i.e. Dockets, vol. i., p. 26^b, and vol. ii., p. 26^b).

From a MS. Collection of Baronets' Arms in the Coll.
of Arms, part ij., fol. 41.
The Coat is wrongly tricked
(see page 118).

Musgrave's "Obituary"
(Hart. Soc.) gives a Sir
Thomas Draper, Baronet [who died in?] 1660; the reference is Wotton's Baronet-age. The date 1660 refers to the year in which he was made a Baronet, not to his death (see Wotton, ed. 1741, vol. iv., p. 275).

This is not the place to print a laboured pedigree of the Draper family, but I shall publish one elsewhere.

I received y^r sommons, and intended most reddely to haue obayd y^r cōmands, but that I received a letter from London, that my sonne, and only sonne, is very dangerously ill, see that my wife and I are necessitated to goe and see him, w^{ch} I am sorry for the occasion to craue y^r pardon. For my coate, it is Barry of 6, genies and argent, in a Cheefe ore, a Lyen passant azure, arm'd and Langu'd of the first, a martlet for the distinction of a fourth brother.

Now S^r I conceiue that beinge a younger brother, my Nephew S^r Francis beinge the cheefe of our family should giue an account of his bearinge, and by that wee are all inuolued, but he not liuinge in this county, perhaps may be out of your virge, or sōmons, how euer my brother Anthony Engletyld of White Knights beinge my elder brother, his account will giue you satisfaction, w^{ch} I doubt not but that he will appeare; And I am sorry I canot waight on you accordinge to my desier, w^{ch} was extremely coacted, by Berekes.

The 21 of March 1664 [1664-65].

The Pedegree of Charles Fettiplace of Lambourne Gent. or Esqui^r soe styled by the kinges Maiestyes Comission for the Peace videlicet.

Thomas Fettiplace of Shifford Parua Esq^r had for his Eldest* sonn John Fettiplace of the same place Esq^r & John his Eldest sonn was Richard Fettiplace of Bezells Lee frō whom are descended the Fettiplaces of the family of Bezells Lec.

The sayd John of Shifford had also Anthony Fettiplace of Swinbrooke for his second sonn Esqui^r of the body to kinge Henry the 7th.

From this Anthony are descended the Fettiplaces of Chiley [Childrey] Barkes. Alexander Fettiplace of Chil[dr]ey was the Eldest sonn of Anthony aforesayd. William Fettiplace of Chil[dr]ey† was the Eldest sō of Alexand^r aforesayd, Sir Edmond Fettiplace of Chil[dr]ey was the Eldest sonn of Will^m aforesayd, Charles Fettiplace of Lambourne was the 5th sonn of Sir Edmond Fettiplace of Chil[dr]ey but may be reckoned for the second sonn of S^r Edmond because only Edward had Issue male & all the rest being 10 souns deceased wthout Issue.

Charles Fettiplace the 5th sonn of Sir Edmond or rather the second sonn because the others had noe Issue, Married wth Anne Garrard daughter of Roger Garrard of Lambourne Gent: the s^d Charles now liuinge hath Issue by the s^d Anne

* Over E^ddst, Ashmole has written third.

† Over Chiley, Ashmole has written Swinbrok.

Roger Fettiplace his Eldest sonn & Charles Fettiplace his second sonn & 5 daughters wherof Anne the Eldest daughter is married vnto M^r John Collins of Betterton.

His coate of Armes is thus Blazoned videlicet he beareth Gules 2 Cheurons Argent wth the difference of a halfe moone as decended from Anthony the second sonn of John of Shifford as is abone expressed & this Charles beareth a halfe moone wth in a halfe moone as a difference or distinctiō beinge the second sonn of a second sonn. The crest is a Griplions head erased.

CHARLES FETTIPLACE.

I cannot clayme the tittle of Esq^r beinge the 5th sonn for there can be but I Esq^r in a famly nor can I transfer it to my sō: Roger Fettiplace.

My name hath been twice registred both in my fathers time in my my [sic] broth^r Jo: Fettiplace time.

This last descent is doubted by Mr S. Barfield (Thatcham, Berks, and its Mauers, vol. ii., p. 269) in a note to his pedigree of Fuller. It is clear that there is an error from the following fragment of the long pedigree registered in the College of Arms (7. D. 14, pp. 153-154). Dowse (and not Richard) Fuller of Chamberhouse, son of Nicholas, married Anne daughter of Sr Thomas Jervoise, and Sir Dowse Fuller was one of their sons. Ashmole says that Sir Dowse married the only daughter of Sir Thomas Allen of London (see p. 35). He married in 1663, Elizabeth daughter of Sir Thomas Alleyn, Knt. and Baronet, Lord Mayor of London, in 1659-60, son of William Allen of Hatfield Peverel, co. Esser. (Barfield's Thatcham, vol. i., 306 n., and ii., 269.)

Henn or Hene, of Winkfield.

MS. Coll. of Arms, Misc. Grants, vol. ii., 133 (abstract). These Arms appear in some of the MSS. Compare the trick given with the pedigree, Vol. I., p. 222.

Sir John Borough Knight Garter . . . credibly informed that the Ancesters of Sir Henry Henn als Hene of Wingfeild in the County of Berks: Knight & Baronett, were originally native of South Wales from whence his grandfather transplanting himself into the County of Surrey dyed there, leaving W^m Henn alias Hene his sonn father of Sr Henry afore-said very young by reason whereof the perfect knowledge of his descent is for the present left uncertyne. And although it appeareth that the Hennes in South Wales were gentlemen of good noate and of Coate Armour from whom it may probably be supposed the said Sr Henry Henn alias Hene to bee descended. Yet hee being no ways willing to encroach upon the Armes and kindred of a family from whom he cannot demonstratively derive himself (w^{ch} not withstanding he hopeth may be herafter claired) hath made earnest request unto mee, that I would in the meane tyme declare & assigne unto him such Armes as hee and his posterity may lawfully beare, without doing wronge or injury to any other person whatsoever, Know yee therefore that I having seriously considered the premises, as also the quality & worth of the said Sr Henry Henn alias Hene, have thought fit to declare and assigne unto him the Armes here under mentioned. Videlicet. Vert a cheveron or, in Cheife three Lyons rampant of the Second armed gules, And for his Crest, on a hearme mantled gules doubled argent, & a torce of his colours, a demy Leopard proper holding in his right paw a battle Axe Argent, As in the margent mor lively is depicted, which Armes (as before expressed) the said Sr John Borough K^t Garter principall King of Armes of Englishmen, by the authority annexed unto the office of Garter, by the statntes of the Most Noble Order of the Garter continued practice, and the Letters Pattents of my said Office, made unto me under the Great Seale of England, do by theis presents declare assigne give grant & confirme unto the aforesaid Sr Henry Henn alias Hen[e] & to the heirs of his body Lawfully begotten, to be by thē, & every of them borne with their due differences according to the Laws of Arms for ever. In witness wherof I have unto theis presents affixed the seale of my office & subscribed my name. Draft of a Grant of Arms to Peregrine Hoby, of Bisham, sent by Elias Ashmole to Sir Edward Bysshe, Knight Clarenceux, dated the 17th of November, 1664. In Ashmole's handwriting. MS. Ashm. 840, pp. 433-34.

To all & singular, aswell Nobles as Gentiles, as others to whome these present shall come, Sr Edward Bysshe Knight Clarenceux King of Armes of the South East & west pt^e of this Realme of England from the River of Trent Southward, sendeth greeting. Forasmuch as amongst the sundry Monum^{ts} devised by our prudent Ancestors to comend the memory of deserving men to succeeding ages, it is observable that the cheifest & most vsuall haue been the bearing of markes or signes in Shields commonly called Armes, as evident demonstracōns of their vertues & rewards for the same, And that for their comendable service to their Prince and Country, in Warr or Peace they might in their lyfe tyme receiue due honor & afterward transmitt the same to their successive posterity. In which respect whereas Peregrine Hoby of Bysham in the County of Berke Esq^r naturall son to Sr Edward Hoby of Bysham afores^d Knight is generally knowne to be a person well deserving not only for his good conversacōn & discreet demeanour, but also for a prudent discharge of his duty to his Country having been a Burgess of Parliam^t for the Towne of Merlow in Co^m Buk: both in the reigne of King Charles the first of blessed memory & of King Charles the 2^d now hapily reigning, as also a Justice of Peace in the s^t County of Berke for many yeares past.

Know yee therefore that I the said Clarenceux for the consideracōns aforesaid, haue by power also of my Office, vnder the greate Seale of England, at the instant request of him the s^d Peregrine Hoby, given granted assigne and confirmed, and by these p'sente doe giue grant assigne & confirme vnto him the s^d Peregrine a Border engrailed sable, vpon the Escotecheon of his Armes, as in the margent of these p'sente is more fully to be seene, as a fit and noted distinceoñ in his said Armes* or Ensignes of Honour from any other of y^t name or family. So that he the said Peregrine Hoby and his descend^{ts} may at all tymes & vpon all occasions, beare & shew forth the same Armes in sheld Coate Armour or otherwise wth their due differences, accord^t to the law of Armes & laudable cus[t]ome of this realme wthout the impediment let or interrupcoñ of any pson or psons whatsoever. In wittnes whereof I the said Clarenceux haue herevnto subscribed my name, & affixed the seale of my Office the 17th day of November in the 16th yeare of the reigne of our Soueraigne lord Charles the 2^d by the grace of God, of England Scotland france & Ireland King defendor of the faith, And in the yeare of o^r L^d God 1664.

Pray S^r Correct & mend this as you think fitt, & retorne it so as you would haue me Engross it.

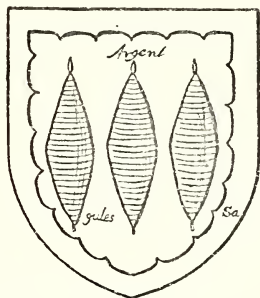

Yo^r most humble ser^t

E: A.

[Addressed] For my honourd freind S^r Edward Bysshe
Knight at Mr Goddard's house in S^t Johns close.

[Sealed, but the seal not clear.]

Grant of Arms (MS. Coll. of Arms, Bysshe's Grants, p. 20).

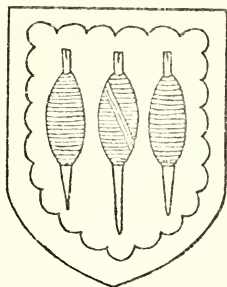

To Peregrin Hoby of Bysham, natural son of Sir Edward Hoby of Bysham in com. Berks, K^t, 17 Nov. 1664.

Argent three bottommes gules threaded or, a bordure engrailed sable.

* Peregrine Hoby had no Arms; the Arms confirmed or granted to him, with the addition of the bordure engrailed, were the Arms of Badford assumed by Hoby on account of the marriage with the heiress of that family, discarding their more appropriate bearing (see "Miscel. Geneal. et Herald.," i., 141-2). Also an exemplification of these Arms to Sir Thomas Posthumous Hoby, Knt., brother to Sir Edward Hoby, Knt., by William Dethick Garter, and William Camden Clarenceux, dated the 10th of July, 1598. A pedigree is also given to the same date. Cf. also "Miscel. Geneal. et Herald.," 2nd Series, iii., 351.

Mrs. Hoby, when she wrote to Ashmole on the 16th of October 1667 (as above), can hardly refer to the Crest granted to Sir Edward Hoby by Dehick on the 10th of June 1570. She says, "Sir Edward [Bysshe] did give a very fine Crest w^{ch} I believe he [Peregrine Hoby] did purchase, for formerly I finde they gave an other, and Mr [Peregrine] Hoby hath y^e patten for y^e new Crest now in y^e hous, w^{ch} I doe Intend to bring to london yer long." Of this crest granted by Sir Edward Bysshe I can find no record. Possibly it was one of the grants cancelled at the Restoration, given by Bysshe during the years 1646 to 1660, when he intruded into the office of Garter for the Parliament.

At the same time Mrs. Hoby seems to have been labouring under some misconception when she wrote about the arms. They had been granted as above on the 17th of November 1664, and were allowed by Ashmole at the Visitation of 1665-66.

The bottoms or weavers' spindles wound with thread (literally balls of thread) seem to be better tricked in Harl. MS. 1483, fol. 139^b.

Lyttell, of Bray.

Harl. MS. 1532, 138^b. gives the Arms, Per chevron Argent and Sable, in chief two fleurs-de-lis, and in base a tower triple towered, all counterchanged.

Crest, "a pigorgs hed" erased Sable bearded Or, maned Argent and Gold, ducally gorged Silver.

THOMAS LYTTELL of Bray p. Clarenceux Garter.

These Arms are found on the Brass of Thomas Lyttell of Bray, who died in 1567.

Marshall, of Blewbury.

Add. MS. 14,283, fol. 72. gives the arms : Or, four bars Sable, in chief a chess-rook between two mullets of the last.

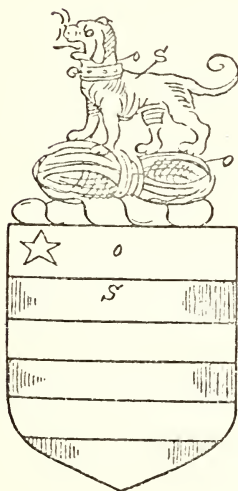

Burke describes the arms as two bars gemelles, and adds : Crest, a griffin's head erased Or, charged on the neck with a chess-rook between two mullets Sable.

Maryett, of Remenham.

Harl. MS. 1172, fol. 7.

Exemplification of Arms and Grant of a Crest to Thomas Maryet of Remenham by Robert Cooke, Clarenceux, 16th of June 1586.

The Crest is wrongly drawn, the hound being collared and lined, the single line under his feet. I have therefore substituted the trick from a MS. collection of Arms.

To all and singular aswell Nobles and gentiliz as others to whome these presents shall come be scene heard, read or Vnderstood Robert Cooke Esq^r alias Clarenceiulx King of Armes and principall Heralde of the East, West and South ptes of this Realme of England sendith greet- ing in o^r Lord god eu^rlasting. Whereas aunciently from the beginning the Vertuous acts of worthy persons haue been commended to y^e world with sondry monumentes and remem- berances of there good deseartes. Emongest the which the chiefest and most vsuall hath ben the bearing of signes and tokens in sheldes called Armes being euident demonstracōns and testi- monies of prowes and Valoir diuersly distributed according to the qualites and deseartes of the persons meritinge the same, Which Order as it was prudently denised to stirre vp and enflame the hartes of men to the imitation of Vertue, Euen soe hath the same ben continued from tyme to tyme and yett is continually observed to the entent that such as have done comendable service to their Prince or Contrey either in Warre or peace may therfore receave due honor in their lynes and alsoe derine the same successively to their posterity for euer And being required of Thomas Maryet of Remmelam in the County of Berks Esquire to make search in the Register and Records of myne Office for the Auncient Armes belonging vnto that name and famely whereof the Records of myne Office do prove he is descended. I haue att his request made search accordingly and finding the same in y^e auncient Recordes of myne Office I could not without great Iniurye assigne vnto him any other Armes then those w^{ch} are lawfully vnto him descended from his Auncestors, That is to say Barrey of sixe Golde and Sables, And for asmuch as I finde noe Crest vnto the same (as comonly to all auncient Armes there belongeth none) I haue giuen and allowed vnto him by way of encrease for his Crest or Cognizance vpon y^e healme on a wreath Gold and Sables, a Hound Sables standing on a Lyme & his Coller gold, mantled Gules doubled Argent, as more plainly appeareth depicted in y^e margent heereof, Which Armes and Crest I the said Clarenceiulx Kinge of Armes by power and auctoretie to myne Office annexed and graunted by Letters Patentes vnder the great seale of England haue ratified, confirmed assigned, giuen and graunted vnto y^e said Thomas Maryett Esquire & to all his posterety with their dewe differences, the same to vse, beare, enjoy and shewe forthe att all times and for euer hereafter according to y^e auncient Lawes of Armes without y^e impedim^t lett or interrū^{ti}ōn of any pson or psous, In witnesse whereof, I the saide Clarenceiulx Kinge of Armes haue hereunto subscribed my name and thereto putt the Seale of myne Office, the xvijth day of June in the yere of our Lord god 1586 and in the xxvijth yere of y^e raigne of our most gracious soueraigne Lady Queene Elizabeth &c.

Mayott, of Abingdon.

MS. Rawl. D. 865, fol. 220 ; Draft of Letter.

Mr Mayott

You promised before send all of yo^r neighbours to send me my fee for entring of yo^r descent the morning before I went from Abingdon, but you were not so good as yo^r word: nor have I heard from you since. Pray let me not be put to the trouble of writ^s againe about it, lest any Inconuenience arise from yo^r refusall.

Yo^r lov^e freind

E. A[shmole] W[indsor] H[erald].

Middle Temple 6 May [16]65.

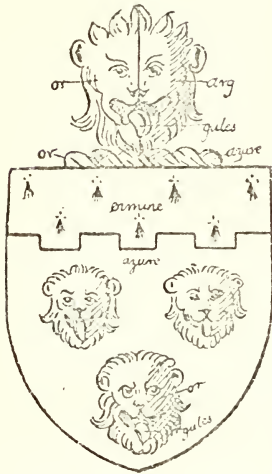

To Mr John Mayott at Abingdon.

The Fee was no doubt paid, as the pedigree is included in the Visitation.

There was another family of Mayott of Abingdon: they bore for Arms, Barry of six, in chief a lion passant guardant.

Michell, of Old Windsor.

Grant of Arms and Crest to Thomas Powle of London, Esquire, by Sir Gilbert Dethicke, Knight, Garter, Robert Cooke, Clarenceux, William Flower, Norroy, dated the 7th of May 1569. (MS. Coll. of Arms, Dethicke's Giftes.)

To all and singular as well nobles and gentlemen as others to whom these presentes shall come be scene hearde read or understood We Sr Gilbert Dethicke Knight als Garter principall Kinge of Armes, Robert Cooke Esquier als Clarenceux Kinge of Armes of the Southe partes and Wiffm Flower Esquier als Norroy Kinge of Armes of the north partes of England sendith greetinge in the Lord God Everlastinge. For as much as aunciently from the beginnunge of the valiant and Vertouse actes of excellent persones have been commendid to the world and posteritie with soundry monuments and remembrances of their good desertes Amongst the which the chiefest and most usuall hath been the bearinge of figures in shyldes called Armes beinge none other thing than demonstrations, or tokens, of prowisse & valour dinersely distributed according to the qualities of the persones meriting the same. To tinctent that such as by their vertues do adde to the advancemēt of the common weale the shyne of their good lyfe and so conversacon in daly practise of thyngs worthy and commendable being the very true and pfecte tokens of a right noble dysposition may therefore receive dewe honor in their lyves and also desyre & continue the same successively in their posteritie for ever. Amongst the which number Thomas Powle of London Escuyer Clerke of Cromme to the Queen's Majesty's Court of Chancerye one of the six clerkes and comptroller of the hanaper in the same Court and also steward of her maties forest of Waltham in the County of Essex beinge one of the bearers of these tokens of honor to witte of Armes with hearme mantles torce and creast to him assigned by William Harvy late Clarenceux Kinge of Armes of the South partes of England by letters patentes bearinge date the xxiiij of June 1559, These Armes and creast withstandinge beinge not so well & belyked of for some respects of the officers of Armes well known to the sayd Thomas Powle hath required us the Kings of Armes to shewe him favor and to gratifye him in the alteration & changeinge & amendinge of his sayd owld Armes & Creast. In Consideracion wherof and at his instant request and for a further proof of our good affection . . . him we the sayd Kinges of Armes by power and authority to us committed by letters patentes under the great seale of England have assigned given & grannted unto the same Thomas Powle in lieu and place of his sayd old armes and creast these armes and creast following viz. azure a fese ermyne between three Lyons passant azure, upon his hearme on a torce silver and goules an unicorne passant azure mained bearded flashed unged & horned gold about the neck a cronne silver mantled genies doubled silver as more playnly appeareth depicted in the margin which arms & creast and every part & parcell therof we the said Kinges of Armes do by these presentes certifie confirme and graunt to the said Thomas Powle and to his posteritie for ever and he and they the same armes to have hold beare enjoy and shew forth with their due differences in shyld, cote, Armour, seale, or otherwyse at all tymes and for ever hereafter at his or their lybertes and pleasures without the impediment loss or interruption of any personn or psonnes. In witness whereof we the Kinges of armes aforesayd have assigned these pnts with o^r handes and sett therunto o^r severall seales of Armes the VIIth of May 1569.

The original of this Grant was exhibited at the Society of Antiquaries on the 1st of April 1897. It is signed by the three Kings of Arms. The seals of Garter and Norroy remain, that of Clarenceux is lost. The Grant has a curious painted border with Tudor badges and flowers, and in the initial a figure of Garter pointing to the arms depicted in the margin. A docket, together with the above description, is printed in the Proceedings (Second Series, xvi., p. 351).

There is a docket of this Grant in Ashmole's handwriting (MS. Ashm. 858, p. 215).

Exemplification of Arms and Crest to George Wilmott of Letcombe Regis, by Sir William Segar, Knight, Garter, dated the 10th of February, 1627. MS. Ashm. 858, p. 193, etc. Another copy in MS. Ashm. 840, p. 419.

To all & singular as well Nobles and Gentlemen as others to whome these presents shall come, William Segar Kn^t Garter principall King of Armes of Englishmen, sendeth greeting in our Lord God everlasting whereas anciently from the beginning the valiant and vertuous actes of worthy psons have bene commended to the world with sundry monuments & remembrances of their good deserts: Amongst which the cheifest & most vsnall hath bene the bearing of signes & tokens in sheilds comonly called Armes which are evident demonstracons of Prowes & valour diversly distributed according to the Qualities & deserts of the psons meryting the same: which Order as it was most prudently devised in the beginning to stir & kindle the heartes of men to the imytacon of virtue and Nobleness even so hath the same bene & yet is continually observed to the end that such as have done comendable se[r]vice to the Prince or Country either in warr or peace, might receive due hono^r in their Lyves & also derive the same successively to their posteritie after their deaths forever & to register & record them in the Office of Armes that vpon all occasions the Kinges & Heraldes of Armes who were instituted for the preservacon of the Nobilitie & Gentry of this Kingedome might make such exemplificacōn of them as should be requyred. In which respect George Wilmote of Letcombe in the County of Berks Esq; being touched with a care for the preservacōn of the memory of his anucestors hath had conference with me & by good & venerable prooffe hath made it appeere that divers monuments of his predecessors have suffred by the iniquitie of tyme, The brasse being so pulled away, as it is not extant what armes were insculped to demonstrate with whome they maryed, yet hath sufficiently manifested himselfe descended from very good anucestors: which vpon his request I have recorded in the Registers of my Office. And further he hath desired me to exemplifye vnto him his Armes and Crest with that difference that he & his postiritie may lawfully beare them without offence to the Lawes of Armes or any other of his name or kindred which accordingly I have done & in such mañer as they are heere depicted in the margent soe are they heere described with the apt & pp termes of Blazon viz^t In a sheild Argent a fesse gules charged with an unicombe seiant and twoe flower deluces Or betwene three Egles heades erased sable And for his Crest vpon a Helme and wreath of his Collours Argent and gules a deny ounce proper houlding a battaile Axe or, with mantells of gules doubled Argent which Armes & Crest & every part & peell thereof I the King of Armes afores^d by vertue of my Office of principall King of Armes of Englishmen according as by the Originall institucōn thereof appeereth Doe by these p'sents approve exemplifye ratifye and confirme vnto the said George Wilmote and his posteritie vsing due differences for ever. And that he & they the Same may vse beare and shew forth in sheeld signett Hatchment pennon Coat Armor Trumpett banners & also vpon Jewells plate Glasse or any other way according to the Lawes of Armes or Lawdable customes of this Realme of England at his or their liberty and pleasure without the lett impediment or interrupcōn of any p'son or p'sons whatsoever In witnes whereof I have here vnto sett my hand & seale the tenth day of February Anno Domini 1627.

It seems clear that if Simon Winch of Fyfield had been able to prove his right to the quarterings he claimed, they would have been tricked in the Visitation. These quarterings are found in some of the MS. copies mentioned above (see Vol. I., p. 312). They were not allowed by the Heralds.

The Visitation of Northumberland, 1666 (Foster, p. 128), under Young of Newcastle-on-Tyne, the above arms are given without the colours, and the following notes appear: See the Visitation of London for proof of these Arms and the colours; Vide Mr. Hare's booke, fol. 80 for y^e colors; see also Anne Yonge of Basilden, Berks, granted 1607.

The first two references occur in C. 41, part 3, folio 9. MS. Collage of Arms. Mr. Hare may have been John Hare, who was successively Rouge Dragon and Richmond Herabl. He died on the 14th of May 1720, aged 52.

The arms are not to be found in any of the Visitations of London. The note about the Grant having been made to Anne Yonge is an addition not given in C. 41, and I have been unable to verify it.

From the Visitation of Northumberland, MS. Coll. of Arms, C. 41.

This crest occurs in MS. Coll. of Arms, Vincent, 161, 19, as that of Yonge, Bark.

Yong.

The following occur in Harl. MS. 1532, fol. 55:—

YONG of Basendon [Basildon]. Argent, a chevron Azure, and chief Gules.

YONG of Wittenham, Lozengy, Argent and Vert, on a chevron Azure three bezants: on a chief gules a goat's head erased between two cinquefoils Or. [? Granted temp. Henry VIII.]
